Dear Paul,

A bit more on Lemarre-"Farewell America":

Swiss front, at address I've already given you, 18 Cours des Bastions, Geneva, Frontiers Etablishments.

Lemarre has used cover name Marie Herve, Paris phone, 870-0200.

Phillippe (Philippe). Has not precisely the name of the former French intelligence chief or at least an agent in 1957 Could a picture of him be obtainable? I could then show it to those who met others than Lemarre, the only one I know I've met. Other Phillipe: Corintes, 30 Rue Chaptal, Levallois 92, France. In 65 early august 1968. October 1965, French agent named Phillipe Houillion said to have been arrested in Manitoba for stirring up French Canadians.

Soreguerre's office 34 Av. Kleber, Paris, has third man, 6'2", large frame, 200 lbs., 45 years, dark hair and complexion. Bergot 5'5", slightly built, brown hair, eyes,, thin, long face, high forehead, prominent temples, sallow complexion, talks little, no humor or charm, dour personality. Office plush, tastefully 18th century decor. Another attorney upstairs there.

Late July or early August 1963, Lemarre told someone to leave word for him at Goudert law firm in New York, and in leaving word, to use only his first name. It is my recollection this firm has connections from the pre-World-War II era that are interesting. It should have said "clients"?

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
